

Amanda Stahnke, PharmD, BCACP
University of Missouri-Kansas City

Candidate for Rho Chi Society National Secretary

The following biographical information is excerpted from Dr. Stahnke's curriculum vita and is not a complete list of her/his many professional accomplishments

Amanda Stahnke, PharmD, BCACP, is a Clinical Associate Professor at the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Pharmacy (UMKC). She received her PharmD from Southern Illinois University Edwardsville School of Pharmacy (SIUE) and completed a PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Belleville, IL. Post residency she accepted a Clinical Assistant Professor position with SIUE before joining UMKC faculty in 2012. Dr. Stahnke has been a member of Rho Chi since 2009. She has served as co-advisor for the Alpha Omega chapter of Rho Chi since 2014 and previously served as co-advisor for the Beta Delta chapter at SIUE. She served two terms as Regional Councilor for Region VI of Rho Chi from 2016 until 2020. Dr. Stahnke has served the Association of Diabetes Care and Education Specialists (ADCES) as Member Affiliates Council member, leader of the Missouri Coordinating Body and Pharmacy Community of Interest and served as chair of the programming committee for the Missouri Society of Health-System Pharmacists (MSHP).

Dr. Stahnke provides patient care services at the Kansas City Veterans Affairs Medical Center (KCVA) in primary care. She has been involved in research projects within the university and at the KCVA. Currently, she is working with colleagues at the KCVA to determine the impact of assessing and providing targeted interventions for Diabetes Distress on glycemic control.

She received Rho Chi Teacher of the Year from UMKC in 2019, Preceptor of the Year from UMKC in 2015 and Volunteer of the Year from MSHP in 2014.