

Carrie L. Griffiths, PharmD, BCCCP, FCCM

Carrie L. Griffiths, PharmD, BCCCP, FCCM is an Associate Professor at Wingate University School of Pharmacy (WUSOP), where she has served in a Practice Faculty role since joining the faculty in 2012. She has served as the faculty advisor for the Gamma Phi Chapter of the Rho Chi Society since 2014.

Dr. Griffiths' practice site is with Atrium Health's Virtual Critical Care where she follows 5 outlying facilities that do not have critical care trained pharmacists. Students that rotate with her find this to be a unique rotation and how telehealth is used within a hospital system. Dr. Griffiths also teaches in various pharmacotherapy modules as well as a leads a critical care elective and medical Spanish elective courses.

Dr. Griffiths is a Board Certified Critical Care Pharmacist. She is an active member of many professional organizations including the Society of Critical Care Medicine where she has been appointed to national committees. In 2019, Dr. Griffiths was inducted as a Fellow of the American College of Critical Care Medicine. In addition, Dr. Griffiths currently serves as the President of the Carolinas Virginias Chapter of the Society of Critical Care Medicine and the Board of Pharmacy Specialty Council on Critical Care Pharmacy.

Dr. Griffiths' professional areas of interest include tele-pharmacy/ICU/telehealth, infectious diseases, and toxicology. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with family and her dog, Raven along with traveling and learning about other cultures.