

Dana A. Strachan, Pharm.D., BCPS

Dana Strachan, Pharm.D., BCPS is currently the Associate Dean for Academics and a Professor of Pharmacy Practice at the Palm Beach Atlantic University (PBAU) Lloyd L. Gregory School of Pharmacy where she actively teaches both in and out of the classroom. As part of her responsibilities at PBAU, Dr. Strachan is actively involved in international medical missions and has led and participated in trips to the Dominican Republic, Belize, Costa Rica, and Honduras. She received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (UNC-CH) and completed a Primary Care/Managed Care residency at Campbell University. She is currently a board certified specialist in pharmacotherapy. Dr. Strachan was inducted into the Xi Chapter of Rho Chi at UNC-CH in 2002. She has served as faculty advisor for the Gamma Chi Chapter at PBAU since 2006. Additionally, she served as Region III Southeastern Councilor from 2015 until 2019. She is excited about the prospect of serving with the Rho Chi National Office again as the organization continues to grow.
