

James Clem, PharmD

James Clem, Pharm.D. is currently a Professor and Department Head in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at South Dakota State University College of Pharmacy and Allied Health Professions. Dr. Clem has been on faculty at SDSU since 1992. Prior to becoming Department Head, Dr. Clem was a faculty member in the college and maintained a clinical practice at Sanford USD Medical Center and worked closely with the Sioux Falls Family Practice Residency program. In addition, he was the PGY1 pharmacy practice residency program director at Sanford USD Medical Center for the first four years of the program from 2004 to 2008. He received his B.S. in Pharmacy and Pharm.D. degree at the University of Iowa. Dr. Clem completed an Adult Medicine Specialty Residency with The University of Texas at Austin at Scott & White Hospital in Temple, Texas. Dr. Clem has been a Rho Chi chapter advisor since 2008 for the Tau chapter at South Dakota State University College of Pharmacy and Allied Health Professions.