

Krystal Moorman, PharmD, BCPS

Krystal Moorman is an Associate Clinical Professor and the Assistant Dean for Experiential Education at the University of Utah College of Pharmacy. She joined the College in October 2012, serving as clinical faculty and maintaining a practice site in ambulatory care at the South Jordan Health Center. Dr. Moorman transitioned to experiential education in 2015. She has served as the advisor for the Rho Chi Beta Epsilon chapter since 2014. Dr. Moorman earned her doctor of pharmacy degree from the Medical University of South Carolina College of Pharmacy. She then completed a PGY-1 residency at the Medical University of South Carolina as well as a PGY-2 residency in Drug Information Practice. Prior to joining the University of Utah, Dr. Moorman served as the Coordinator of Drug Information and Medication Safety at Intermountain Medical Center for 4 years. She has also worked as a Drug Information Specialist at Kaiser Permanente in Denver, Colorado. In addition to experiential education and preceptor development, her interests include drug information and medication safety. She currently teaches both topics in the didactic curriculum. She has previously served as USHP president and as a delegate in both the ASHP and AACP House of Delegates. In her free time, she is a yoga instructor and enjoys hiking, paddle boarding, and all things outdoors with her 2 children and her dogs.
