

Sarah J. Steinhardt, PharmD, JD(Esq.), MS

Dr. Steinhardt is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Pharmacotherapeutics and Clinical Research at the University of South Florida Taneja College of Pharmacy in Tampa, Florida, where she has served in a faculty role since 2012. She is a founding faculty co-advisor for the Epsilon Kappa Chapter of the Rho Chi Society since the Chapter's establishment in 2015 and was inducted as a member of the Alpha Zeta Chapter of the Rho Chi Society at Purdue University in 2000. She coordinates and teaches Jurisprudence and an elective on Drugs of Misuse, Addiction, and Law Enforcement and was voted PY3 Teacher of the Year for 2015, 2016, 2019, and 2020, and she was voted Teacher of the Program for 2020. She earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree With Distinction from Purdue University College of Pharmacy and completed her PharmD project on compounding in simulated microgravity at NASA's Johnson Space Center in Houston, Texas. She obtained her law degree from the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law and completed a PGY2 pharmacy administration residency with the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center and a Masters of Pharmacy Administration from the University of Pittsburgh School of Pharmacy and has practiced in both community and hospital settings for 9 years. She was selected as the 2011 ACCP/ASHP/VCU Congressional Health Care Policy Fellow and worked on judiciary, drug abuse, and health care issues in the United States Senate.