

NATIONAL RHO CHI SOCIETY NEWSLETTER

WELCOME to our newly revamped Rho Chi National Honor Society newsletter. We hope that the newsletter will provide greater communication and collaboration among Rho Chi Society members nationally. In addition, we aim to provide you with most up to date information about our upcoming events, scholarships, social media pages, and much more. We hope that you find the information insightful. Thank you for your continued support and we look forward to staying in touch throughout the years to come! To provide feedback on how we can improve our communications or to have your chapter featured in our future newsletters please email Jelena Lewis at jelewis@chapman.edu.

President's Corner

Andrew J. Smith

University of Missouri-Kansas City

President, Rho Chi Society

As President of the Rho Chi Society, I'm excited to welcome you to a new year focused on academic excellence, leadership, and service. Rho Chi's mission emphasizes critical inquiry and the development of intellectual leaders. This year, I urge you to fully embrace these ideals by contributing your unique strengths through service, innovation, and active involvement with the Society. Whether through research, advocacy, or mentorship, every effort strengthens our community and advances the future of pharmacy and healthcare.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Clinical Research Scholarship is awarded annually to a qualified clinical research fellow and is sponsored by the Rho Chi Society. The application deadline is December 15, 2024.

The AFPE First Year Graduate Fellowship Scholarship is awarded annually to a qualified student beginning their first year of graduate study. The application deadline is May 1, 2025.

Details regarding the scholarship and application process are available at rhochi.org.

Congratulations to Frank Romanelli, Pharm.D., MPH, FAPhA, BCPS, AAHIVP, the 2025 Rho Chi Lecture Award Winner!
